Hill School

Project Partners joined the Hill School team and quickly identified opportunities to engage vital referral sources to bring additional students to Hill School. In partnership with the Admissions and Marketing departments, we linked arms and produced a first-class Open House for new incoming families, engaged existing stakeholders to work together for Hill School, and set a new standard for outwardly-facing interactions. Our work empowered the staff, produced branded collateral tools, set new expectations, and left the school with a specific and detailed blueprint for ways to continue to grow and engage Hill School's community of champions.

"You all stepped in and not only showed us ways to better engage our families, staff, donors, volunteers, and community champions, but left us a road map for future success. Thank you!"
